Billy Moore Days – Plans to participate in the parade are underway, the group is registered as a participant to represent AYAC. The group may use Michelle's father's truck and decorate it as a "float" and have members walk alongside and wave at audience. Further discussion will continue at next meeting, pending word back from Michelle and her father.

Center for the Future of Arizona, DemocraSEED – AYAC was been selected to participate in this year's cohort. Members will collaborate on a project in the community as a solution or raising awareness with an identified problem. Several work sessions will schedule to ensure the success of the group in this yearlong project challenge. Pending more information from the Center.

Marketing and Social Media – Members are encouraged to continue to engage on social media with peers to get them to view our page and “follow” the page.

AYAC Open House – The event will take place at the next meeting on August 27. Planning was discussed, as well as who will be responsible for which item during the event. Members were asked to try to arrive at least 30 mins prior to assist with set-up.

Make a Difference Day – Members were invited to participate in the this year’s event. The event will be held in Cashion, and several homes will be painted. The event is on Saturday, October 27, 7am to 12pm.

NLC City Summit, Los Angeles – It has been determined that we do not have adequate time to plan for funding and the dates may conflict with our commitment to assisting Kids At Hope with the Time Traveler Summit. This event has been canceled.

Kids At Hope Time Traveler Summit – The date is pending approval, but may be held sometime the week of November 5. Pending further details from KAH.

NLC Washington DC 2019 – The dates are March 8 to March 14, 2019. Member have been advised to start deciding on who will attend. Permission slips and more info will be sent out in the next month to those who will commit to attending.
